

A PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honourable Sir Walter Benjamin Campbell, Companion of the Order of Australia, one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the law, Governor in and over the State of Queensland in the Commonwealth of Australia.

[L.S.]

W. B. CAMPBELL,
Governor.

IN pursuance of the powers in me vested by the Officials in Parliament Act 1896-1988, I, Sir Walter Benjamin Campbell, the Governor aforesaid, do, by this my Proclamation, declare that the following Officers of the Crown, being Officers liable to retire from Office on political grounds, are capable of being elected Members of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland and of sitting and voting therein, that is to say:—

The Premier and Treasurer and Minister for State Development and the Arts

The Deputy Premier and Minister for Public Works, Housing and Main Roads

The Minister for Health and Attorney-General

The Minister for Land Management

The Minister for Finance and Minister Assisting the Premier and Treasurer

The Minister for Employment, Training and Industrial Affairs

The Minister for Mines and Energy

The Minister for Primary Industries

The Minister for Environment, Conservation and Forestry

The Minister for Transport

The Minister for Water Resources and Maritime Services

The Minister for Police, Emergency Services and Tourism

The Minister for Local Government and Racing

The Minister for Education, Youth, Sport and Recreation

The Minister for Family Services and Corrective Services

The Minister for Justice

The Minister for Industry, Small Business, Technology and Administrative Services

The Minister for Community Services, Ethnic Affairs and Northern Development

instead of the Officers who, by a Proclamation dated the nineteenth day of January, 1989, were declared capable of being so elected and of so sitting and voting.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Government House, Brisbane, this thirty-first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and in the thirty-eighth year of Her Majesty's reign.
