INTER
OFFICE
MEMO

I refer to your memorandum, a copy of which is attached for your convenience. A perusal of my personal file indicated that no requested records were attached. You were also unaware of any other Departmental file containing the records requested.

For you information, records relating to myself are in the possession of the Department. The Queensland State Service Union presented these documents to the Department. These documents are the documents referred to in Terms of Reference Number I for the abovementioned investigation.

On 29 November 1989, Mr Heiner's office provided the names of the persons who had given the documents to the Queensland State Service Union and in turn to the Department. These persons are Mr Lannen, Mr Smith, Ms Pearce, Ms McGregor, Mr Collins, Mr McNeven, (unsigned), Mr Clements and Ms Konicanin.

Mr Heiner, on 11 January 1990, advised me he had copies of documents provided by the abovementioned people. He also indicated that he obtained these documents from the Department and that the originals were held by the Department. Senior officers of the Department are also aware that these documents exist.

My request on 15 January 1990 was for records held on myself relating to the abovementioned investigation. Regulation 65 of the Public Service Management and Employment Regulations not only allows access to Departmental files, but also to records held by the Department on an officer.

The title of Regulation 65 "Access to Officer's File" does not limit the right to peruse any record held on an officer.

The Department does hold records on myself relating to the abovementioned investigation. As such, I respectfully request a copy of those records forthwith.
