During appointment at Toowoomba I served the period 10.8.70 to 17.3.71 on special duty at Chief Office, Department of Justice, carrying out investigations and submitting a report, in conjunction with Audit Inspector Mr D.W. Lovejoy, resulting in the modernising and improving and implementation of the new accounting procedures in Magistrates Courts Offices throughout Queensland.

From 17.3.71 to 7.2.72 engaged, in conjunction with Mr G. Pearson then Legal Officer, Department of Justice, in the revision and consolidation of circulars issued by the Department of Justice, to Magistrates Courts Offices and the preparation of Instructions to Clerks of the Courts.

I have experience in Magistrates Courts Offices. I have carried out the duties of a stipendiary Magistrate continually since 7.2.72.

During my secondment I gained experience in Chief Office administration and in the preparation of Departmental legislation and legal drafting.
